Marketed as of 09/06/2025

NAKED post-paid tariff includes access to a variety of mobile services: telephony, internet, and other mobile offerings. Details about the product and available prices can be found in the service description, The General Terms and conditions and the NAKED price list.

You start each month at zero cost and only pay for what you actually use at the end of each month (post-paid).

If you do not use our service for an entire month, the fee for that month will be zero.

You will receive notifications regarding your usage and before entering the next level, as detailed in the table below.

Tariff details described in this document apply for domestic region and EU roaming. EU roaming includes usage in the EU, the UK, Norway, Iceland, and Liechtenstein.
